THE JUNE EDIT

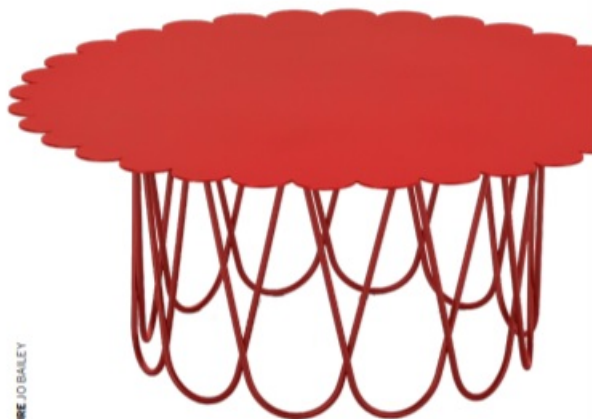

CLASSIC CANE, WITH A TWIST

This summer, our love affair with rattan continues with the launch of the light and stylish painted furniture range by Birdie Fortescue. The Teras collection includes a headboard, sofa, side table and dining chairs, all available in refreshing shades of Aegean Blue, Rose Pink or Basil Green. Shown here is the double headboard, £250.

FORM MEETS FUNCTION

The Flower table was originally designed by Alexander Girard in the 1950s for the interior of the famous Miller House in Indiana. It has since been developed in powder-coated steel for use indoors and out and comes in a choice of colours in two sizes, from £549, Vitra.

COLLECTION TO LOVE: LASCOMBE HILL

Inspired by a passion for antiques, furniture designer and dealer Robin Myerscough teamed up with master cabinetmaker David Ellis of Lascombe Hill to produce a range of occasional furniture with a contemporary edge. The Lascombe Hill Collection celebrates bamboo and bobbin detailing, with specialist paint finishes in bold hues, all handmade to order. From £1,062 for a Bamboo mirror.

LUXE LIGHTING

Composed of nine smoky grey borosilicate glass shades and a polished brass frame, this Spark pendant light, £1,779.44, Bontempi Casa, brings a sense of modern opulence to interiors. It is also available with six shades or as a single stem. →
